CALISCH SPEAKS ON WAR

Delivers Third of Series of Lectures on Conditions in Europe.

The third of a series of lectures dealing with the European war situation was delivered last night at Beth Ahahah Temple by Dr. E. N. Calisch before a large congregation. "The Right of Little Nations to a Place in the Sun" was his subject.

The speaker displayed a wide knowledge of conditions as they exist in stricken Europe, and placed especial emphasis upon the fact that it is not always the mightier power that exercises the greater influence in epochmaking contests. Deep interest was manifested by the audience throughout the discourse.

DIES FROM WOUNDS

Orla L. Britton, Injured While Hunt-ing, Leaves Large Family.

Orla L. Britton, a painter by trade, died late on Thursday night at Jetersville from a gunshot wound accidently inflicted while hunting.
